Sir,

Sub: Contributory Pension Scheme – Annual statement of Accounts furnished to the employees – Following the pattern of Government of TamilNadu - Requested – Reg.

It is a well known fact that the Government servants who have been recruited on or after 01-04-2003 are coming under the ambit of Contributory Pension Scheme. Accordingly, the annual statements of Accounts are being furnished to these employees, every year.

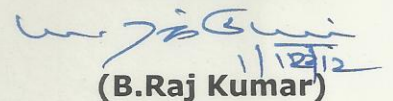

We bring to your kind notice of the fact that there are some discrepancies and ambiguities in the said statements issued by the Board, when compared with the ones that are issued by the Government of TamilNadu. To bring it to the fore, we enclose herewith two Account Statements: the first is of a Board employee and the second one is from a Government servant.

It may be seen from the statements that the interest part has been left blank in the Board Statement, whereas it has been shown legibly in the Government statement. Moreover, the format adopted by the Government is more precise and distinct than the TNEB format.

We therefore, request the Secretary to kindly arrange for revising the existing format of Annual statement of Accounts of Contributory Pension Scheme followed by the Board in similar with the pattern followed by the Government of TamilNadu please.

Thanking you Sir,

Yours faithfully,

(B.Raj Kumar)
